

Participants in Audubon YMCA's STRONG Program were invited to a 76ers game on Saturday, December 6. The kids got to play basketball on the court before the game, high five the players as they came out. Two STRONG kids, Zamia and Tamar, were even announced as part of the starting five! Here are some photos of their once in a lifetime field trip..

